

Suing Psychiatrists

Professor Ian Freckelton SC

Barrister

Professor: Law Faculty, Department of Forensic Medicine, School of Psychology, Psychiatry and Psychological Medicine, Monash University
Adjunct Professor, Faculty of Business and Law, Deakin University; Adjunct Professor, National Institute of Public Health and Mental Health Research, Auckland University of Technology.

President, Australian and New Zealand Association of Psychiatry, Psychology and Law (Vic Branch)

Vice-President, International Institute of Forensic Studies

Vice-President, International Academy of Law and Mental Health (Australasia)

Editor, Journal of Law and Medicine

Editor-in-Chief, Psychiatry, Psychology and Law

Professor Ian Freckelton is a Senior Counsel at the Victorian Bar where he started as a barrister in 1988. His practice is in professional negligence, personal injuries and criminal law. Ian is also a Professor of Law, Forensic Medicine and Forensic Psychology at Monash University. Until recently he was the Lawyer Member of the Medical Practitioners and Psychologists Registration Boards. He has been a member of 9 tribunals and is still a member of the Mental Health Review Board and the Disciplinary Appeals Tribunal. He is the editor of the Journal of Law and Medicine and the Editor-in-Chief of Psychiatry, Psychology and Law. He is the author of some 350 articles and chapters of books and about 30 books about expert evidence, mental health law, causation, criminal injuries compensation, criminal law, medical law, therapeutic jurisprudence, and coronial law.

DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHIATRY MONDAY COLLOQUIUM

Monday 21st July 2008 / 1North, Main Block, Royal Melbourne Hospital, Victoria

Lunch: 1215-1230 Presentation: 1230-1330

Monday Colloquia are a joint presentation between the University of Melbourne Department of Psychiatry & North Western Mental Health. For more information contact Dr Veronique Browne - tel +61-3 9342 7705