

Towards new mechanisms of anti-psychotic drug action

A/Prof Suresh Sundram

Suresh Sundram is the Head of Molecular Psychopharmacology at the Mental Health Research Institute, Director of the Northern Psychiatry Research Centre and Director of Clinical Services of the Northern Area Mental Health Service. He is actively involved in neurobiological and clinical research into schizophrenia and related psychotic disorders with over 60 publications in the area. He is an Associate Professor with the Department of Psychiatry at the University of Melbourne.

DEPARTMENT OF PSYCHIATRY MONDAY COLLOQUIUM

Monday 17 August 2009 / 1North, Main Block, Royal Melbourne Hospital, Victoria

Lunch: 1215-1230 Presentation: 1230-1330